

Civil Rights Defense

Bill Patterson

- Casey D. Younger

Cases involving a civil rights claim often involve sensitive issues, and the attorneys of Wilkins Patterson recognize that these claims must be investigated thoroughly but fairly, with close attention to detail. Our years of experience include defense of suits alleging employment discrimination filed pursuant to Title VII of the United States Code as well as those involving conditions of confinement and law enforcement officer excessive force filed pursuant to Title 42, Section 1983 of the United States Code.
