

Rental Purchase Law

Attorneys at Wilkins Patterson represent business clients in matters involving rental purchase laws and contract disputes. Our attorneys advise clients on rental purchase laws affecting their businesses, including the Uniform Commercial Code and the Mississippi Rental-Purchase Agreement Act. Because of our experience and familiarity with Mississippi law, we are able to provide our clients with ideas for more efficient business practices, which result in a reduction of litigation costs. We also prepare and revise rental purchase contracts and inform our clients of changes in state and federal law affecting their businesses.
